The DIMMER VIEW

Drug Driver is in Trouble

Drug users formerly outwitted cops by employing a ruse that is not longer available to them. They'd palm themselves off as drunks.

The way it worked — until this week — is the non-narcotic drug user swishes his mouth with beer before driving. To many people, one swish of beer smells the same as 5 glasses.

The arresting officer, smelling the alcohol, gives the standard nose-touching, foot-hopping tests which are failed. Barbiturate users usually appear to be drunk so the officer takes the suspect to the testing laboratory. The drug user exercises his option of choosing one of three tests — breath, urine or blood. He chooses the breathalyzer. When the reading comes up triple zero, the officer knows the driver is on drugs.

But to make a case stand up in court the officer needed medical proof supplied by a medical doctor. This produced the first loophole because area police departments have no doctor on their staffs for this specific purpose. Few doctors want such cases because there usually follows time-consuming court appearances and few doctors want to take that time from his already over-heavy case load.

The cop's objective at this point is to keep the suspect off the road in his car. So he is booked under 647F of the Penal Code — a catchall for drunks and non-narcotic drug users.

Under this charge the suspect can be held only for six hours and the bail is a measly $25 — hardly enough to deter a drug user who is determined to drive while he is "high".

Driving while under the influence of alcohol can lead to the loss of license under conditions of the implied consent law. There is no parallel law for non-narcotic drug users.

For clarification, drugs fall into two general categories. The amphetamine family is a stimulant and violators are charged with a felony. The fine is a maximum of $5,000 and as much as five years of time in a state institution can be ordered. The urine test provides the court evidence.

The barbiturates are sedative and are classed as non-narcotic. Blood samples or urine tests prove use. The charge for non-narcotic abuse is a misdemeanor. These users were the ones who got out in six hours and faced a $25 or less fine.

But last week in San Diego, the city attorney's office, the county district attorney's office, and representatives of the judiciary, found no reason why Section 23106 of the Penal Code could not be enforced. So now it is.

Simply stated it provides that blood can be taken by laboratories and that this evidence is admissible in court where there is reason to believe the suspect has been using non-narcotic drugs. Under this section the maximum fine is $500 and up to a year in jail — or both — may be given. What's more, the user doesn't put up $25 bail and go free. He's got to come up with about $350 — or maybe $500 — to bail out.

Because of the action by the prosecuting branches of local government, we suspect there'll be fewer non-narcotic "drunks" on the road.

As a wind-up, it should be noted that "beating the rap" isn't exclusively within the province of the drug user. Those under the influence of alcohol sometimes choose the urine test knowing the breath test will convict them. But when the drinking driver gets to the laboratory he pleads that he "can't go" under the belief that the longer he waits the more diluted will be the alcohol in his specimen. So the drinker sits and waits. He also nails down an officer who must drunk-watch him. The officer often spend the several hours filling out reports that have accumulated during his shift until the drinker reaches the hopping-from-one-foot to the other stage. Then the specimen is taken.

The test shows almost exactly what it would have shown if the drinking driver had given it at once.

Howarth Gains Fellowship To Attend Kennedy School

Don Howarth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Howarth of Spring Valley, has been awarded a $4800 fellowship for a year of study at Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government.

War On Litter Director Is S.V. Rotary Guest

The weekly luncheon-meeting of the Spring Valley Rotary Club will be Friday at 12:10 p.m. in the Ox Bow Inn, Campo rd., in the Casa de Oro area of Spring Valley. All Rotarians are welcome, says president Don Tarr.

Guest speaker will be Harry LaDou, District Director of San Diego City and County of the War on Litter. He will be speaking on Ecology and Pollution.

Sellery Calls For Spring Bond Issue

The Grossmont Union High School District Board of Trustees met Monday night and expelled five students for drug policy violations and heard recommendations from Superintendent Austin Sellery regarding a $1.75 million bond issue.

Of the five expelled, one student was expelled for on-campus violations. The board also re-instated 48 students at the meeting, and denied re-admission to ten others.

Superintendent Sellery's recommendations to the board for a floating bond issue this spring called for the bonding to cover capital outlay underwriting, and complete funding for construction of the ninth high school, and sites for the tenth school and Continuation School, which will be moved.

"The question is not whether we build a ninth high school or purchase the sites for a tenth school and continuation, but rather how we finance these," Dr. Sellery told the trustees.

Sellery recommended that the board approve the bond issue rather than take the money from general purpose taxes, which could add 47 cents to the 1970-71 tax rate.

If the district passed the bond issue in the spring of 1971, the tax rate would only jump 12 cents the first year and 17 cents the following year, according to Sellery.

Two Arrested On 'Grass' Charges

Two Lemon Grove people were arrested last week possession of marijuana when sheriff's deputies discovered the contraband while investigating a loud music complaint.

In response to the complaint September 8 late at night, deputies went to 2455 Hardy st., Lemon Grove, where they arrested Raymond Hardin, 24, and Carole Kercheval, 21.

According to sheriff's reports, the deputies smelled the odor of burnt marijuana when they approached the house. A detailed search revealed the "grass", as well as several packs of cigarette papers and some "roach clips".

LG Fire Report

It was a "light" week for the Lemon Grove Fire Department, for Sept. 7-14, having four fire calls and one rescue call.

On Sept. 9, at 2:18 p.m., firemen were called to 3855 Capitol. There the roof of the house, belonging to A. R. Fortier, was damaged by fire in the amount of approximately $1,000. Cause of the fire was given as neighborhood children playing with fireworks. Some of the inner wiring was also burned.

A spotlight left burning in a car at 2776 Massachusetts on Sept. 7, caused light damage to the car, owned by Gene Yankey, of 1717 Colfax, L.G. and to a jacket left in the car. The F.D. was called at 10:13 a.m. to extinguish the flames.

On Sept. 13, repairmen were working on an alarm system at Mayfair Market. They accidentally triggered a call to the Fire Station sending men and equipment to the market.

A call came into the Fire Station at 12:46 a.m., on Sept. 13, from 7530 Central. Mrs. Reho Demaree, 48 was having trouble breathing, due to a recent operation. She was administered oxygen and sent to Grossmont Hospital.

On Sept. 14, the Lemon Grove fire department sent two units to a grass fire in the 3200 block of Sweetwater rd., where the blaze burned a quarter of an acre of grass and tumbleweeds. No damage was reported, and the cause of the fire was undetermined.

6,000 Acres to Be Developed

Homes for 75-100,000 People Planned for Monte Vista Ranch

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — The Local Agency Formation Commission has approved formation of a County Service Area for the 6,000-acre Rancho San Diego, a development that could eventually house 75,000 to 100,000 people.

The service area is for the specific purpose of providing a tax base for specific planning of the five to seven villages or towns.

Monday's action by the LAFC was somewhat doubtful and received criticism from both the Otay Municipal Water District and the Spring Valley Fire Protection District.

The first unit of the large development is to be heard by the County Planning Commission on Friday, but this hearing on two rezones will probably be postponed.

Rancho San Diego stretches from the Sweetwater Springs area to the Monte Vista Ranch and will have an obviously profound effect on the nearby communities.

William Hillyer, attorney for the Associated Land Company which controls the land, said that eventually the area might become a city of its own or possibly annex to a city, such as El Cajon.

The LAFC acted to allow the formation of the service area for planning purposes only, but the catch is that once the service area is formed, it can perform any service that can be performed by the county.

The area is totally within the Otay Water district and partly within the Spring Valley Fire district.

Spring Valley Fire Board president, C. E. Pennick, and Otay manager Glenn Reiter, were placed in the position of not being able to oppose planning, but were also in the position of not wanting a rival agency superimposed upon land which they can service.

Hillyer said that Rancho San Diego needs the "umbrella" of a single governmental agency that can help in planning and development.

One rather plain advantage of a county service area is that in the event of annexation or incorporation, the city could assume the role as the governing body from the Board of Supervisors with a minimum of fuss.

While Otay's Reiter could not oppose planning, Otay has not been outstanding in its own planning efforts. The property owners in the Calavo Gardens-Shadow Hills area (Improvement District No. 14) have a new tax rate of $1.40 per $100 of assessed valuation for sewer purposes.

The tax rate does not appear excessive because Otay has installed a series of trunk sewer lines in the area. These lines, however, are not connected to any sewer plant and empty lines might indicate poor planning.

Free lunches to be available to needy Lemon Grove students.

The Lemon Grove School District Board of Trustees met Monday night and approved operation policies and adopted the National School Lunch Act, which will mean free lunches for students on welfare and reduced prices for needy students.

In the operation policy measure, the board voted to approve the proposed course of study for the Lemon Grove District, which also included State and County courses of study and materials.

Also under operation policies, the board approved employees' handbooks, which were essentially the same as last year with exception of a section on disciplinary action, which was amended to comply with discipline policies set by the board late last year.

Changes Approved Class time schedules were also approved, as were new operating procedures in the food service department. Changes in the food service department included a new method for banking procedures, which is expected to save the district about $50 per week in labor.

It was expected that prices for milk were to rise this year, due to the fact that milk subsidy was to be discontinued this year. The milk subsidy will remain, however, so the price change was not approved.

Free Lunches Under the free lunch program, the district will now be able to give free lunches to wellfare students and reduced price lunches to needy students, with total reimbursement from federal funds.

The free lunch program is required by the National School Lunch Act, which also requires that anonymity of the pupils receiving free or discount lunches be protected by the district.

The National School Lunch Act is the method by which most school districts receive surplus foods.

Lunch Tickets Byron Netzel, Superintendent of the Lemon Grove School District, proposed to the board that lunch tickets, which are available to all students so they need not carry money to school, be used as the protective device for free and discount lunches.

The tickets would be distributed with special number codes for free and discount lunches, which would insure anonymity for students who qualify.

Under the program, parents of students will be mailed notices of the program along with applications so parents can see if their children qualify for the program.

The program is expected to go into effect Sept. 21.

Students from families of two through eight will qualify if the gross income per month of that family parallels with the scale from $210 to $485. Students from families of more than eight will be figured on a scale of $40 per additional member over $485.

Dedication of Restored Church Set for Sunday at St. Philip's

The almost unbelievable determination of a Lemon Grove minister will be realized Sunday when one of the oldest churches in San Diego will be dedicated.

The church, a historical Victorian Gothic structure which had served San Diego Episcopalians as St. Paul's, was moved in sections earlier this year and restored on the grounds of St. Philip's Episcopal church at Palm and Hardy streets.

The dedication services will be at 3 p.m. according to the Rev. Kenneth R. Johnson, rector of St. Philip's. The Rt. Rev. Robert C. Rusack, Suffragan Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles, will officiate. Mr. Johnson will present a class of children and adults for confirmation by the Bishop.

The restored building has been a part of the life of San Diego since 1887. The Rev. Canon C. Rankin Eames, former Rector of old St. Paul's, as was his father before him, will give the Sunday sermon.

The festival music will be sung by members from the choirs of St. Dunstan's, St. Paul's, and St. Philip's under the direction of Mrs. Charles D. Foster, organist. The building was for nearly 60 years at the corner of 8th & C sts., San Diego, and in 1948 was removed to State College campus, where it served that area as St. Dunstan's church. Early this year it was removed in seven sections to its present site and re-assembled. Built of redwood, and with several of its original stained glass windows and handsome spire, the building seats 300 and serves a growing congregation as well as the community. St. Philip's sponsors a Boy Scout troop and other local interests.

Men and women of the congregation have worked steadily for months to prepare the building for use and much remains to be done. The Vestry is composed of the following members: Messrs. Michael Brega, Senior Warden; Marvin R. Saucer, Junior Warden; Mrs. Charles W. Edens, Treasurer; and Mrs. J. B. Pearce, Clerk. Members-at-Large: Messrs. Joseph Ondrechen, Ivan L. L. Wong, Ernest D. Varga, Robert E. Hawley, Robert W. Boothman, Fayette E. Farhar, Dr. Sam W. Smith, and Richard N. Grout.

Many former members of old St. Paul's have been married, confirmed, and baptized there and will attend the service of dedication. Also any who are interested are invited to attend. After the service refreshments will be served in the Parish Hall.

Pancake Breakfast Set By St. John's Youth

The youth club at Saint John of the Cross Church, 8086 Broadway, Lemon Grove, is sponsoring a Pancake Breakfast set for this Sunday in the Parish Hall.

The breakfast will be an "all you can eat" affair, opening at 8 a.m. and continuing through 1 p.m. Prices will be one dollar for adults and fifty cents for youngsters.

Australia is reducing income taxes on low incomes.

"old" St. Philip's which will now serve as a parish hall. St. Philip's, during the past four years of Fr. Johnson's rectorship, has progressed from mission to parish status, has purchased a rectory, and has acquired old St. Paul's as its parish church.

Locals Invited To Point Loma For Meetings

Teachers and interested people of Trinity Presbyterian Church have been invited to meetings tomorrow and Saturday in Point Loma. This week's calendar:

Thursday, Sept. 17: Chancel choir at 7:30 p.m.

Friday, Sept. 18 at 7:30 p.m. and Saturday, Sept. 19 at 10 a.m., there will be meetings at the Pt. Loma Presbyterian Church for teachers and other interested persons. Dr. William Loper will be the main speaker and there will be a discussion leader. There will be separate grade level discussion groups on Saturday.

Saturday, Sept. 19: Clippers meet at 6:30 p.m. for a planned luau.

Sunday, Sept. 20: Church School at 9 a.m.; coffee fellowship at 10 a.m.; Worship at 10:30 a.m.; a luau for the congregation at 5:30 p.m.

Wednesday, Sept. 23: Christian Education dinner at 6:30 p.m. The dinner will be served by the Clippers.

NEW ST. PHILIP'S - OLD ST. PAUL - This old church, which started serving Episcopalians in San Diego in 1887 has been restored as St. Philip's in Lemon Grove. It will be dedicated Sunday at 3 p.m. at Palm and Hardy streets.

Rev. Grimes To Bring Message At S.V. Baptist

Rev. Homer Grimes, a retired minister, now living in Loma Linda, Calif., will be bringing the message at the Sunday, Sept. 20 service at 11 a.m. at the First Baptist Church of Spring Valley.

Besides being a minister, Rev. Grimes is well known as a composer of spiritual music and other compositions. Around the time of World War II he toured for a while with Art Baker of radio, television and motion picture fame. Rev. Grimes also has been pastor of several San Diego churches.

Dr. Charles Talley, Pastoral Advisor, will be bringing the message at the 7 p.m. service. Also at the 7 p.m. service will be a baptism service.

Plans are afoot for the Annual American Baptist Men's Meeting, scheduled for Tuesday, Sept. 29, beginning with a dinner at 6:30 p.m., in the First Baptist Church of Ocean Beach.

Several men of the Spring Valley church plan to attend. Tickets are $1.50 each and reservations should be in no later than Sept. 27. Phone Frank Rose, at 469-1480, or L. C. Smith at 446-1385.

The World Fellowship Offering will be accepted Oct. 4.

It has been pointed out that the young people attendance at the First Baptist Church of Spring Valley is increasing, and a "thank you" goes out to all these young people for their faithfulness.

This Sunday

Let no one imagine that it is a strained and unnatural thing for one to pray. The contrary is much closer to the fact. It is for more unnatural for one not to pray. Prayer is one of the most natural of human instincts. Prayer is man's response to the divine will.

Missionary Is Guest Sunday At CDO Baptist

Rev. and Mrs. Harry Genet, along with their children, Bradley and Brenda, were guests at the Casa de Oro Baptist Church, Sunday, Sept. 6.

Rev. Genet brought the morning message, "Our Assignment from God." He also spoke at a combined youth supper-meeting at 6 p.m. and at 7 p.m. he showed pictures and talked about Missionary work in Beirut, Lebanon.

The Genets are on a short furlough from their mission station where he is engaged in literature work. They will be returning to the Near East next month.

The ladies prayer group of the CDO Baptist Church held a service of cheer at the Casa de Oro Guest Home on Wednesday afternoon. This will be a regular ministry for the ladies, on the second Wednesday of each month.

On Friday evening, Sept. 18, the Adult Sunday School class will have an old fashioned ice cream social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Max Anderson, which begins at 7:30 p.m.

The Music Committee of the CDO Baptist Church is sponsoring an Area-Wide Sing for Sunday afternoon, Sept. 20, beginning at 2 p.m. All Conference churches have been invited. It also will include a potluck dinner following the morning service. Special music from various churches will be presented.

Our Men In The Armed Forces

William Essex

Captain William S. Essex Jr., 23, whose parents live at 8317 Robbie way, Lemon Grove, completed a 16-week helicopter pilot course recently at the Army Primary Helicopter School, Ft. Walters, Tex.

During the course he was trained to fly Army helicopters and learned to use them in tactical maneuvers.

He will next undergo advanced flight training at the Army Aviation School, Ft. Rucker, Ala.

His wife, Judith, lives at 10017 Cristobal, Spring Valley.

Daniel M. Hacker

Navy Lieutenant (junior grade) Daniel M. Hacker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan P. Hacker of 2090 Madera, Lemon Grove, received the "Wings of Gold" designating him a Naval Aviator during ceremonies at the Naval Air Station, Chastagne, Beeville, Tex.

His designation represents 18 months of extensive flight training at Beeville and the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla. He reported to Training Squadron 26 in Texas last March where he received approximately 20 weeks of instruction in the TF9J "Cougar" jet aircraft.

Beverly Ball

Cadet Beverly D. Ball, daughter of Mrs. Evelyn L. Ball, 7655 Circle dr., Lemon Grove, recently was graduated from a four-week summer course at the Women's Army Corps School, Ft. McClellan, Ala.

Cadet Ball will be a senior at San Diego State College, San Diego, this fall.

During the month-long course, coeds who have finished their junior year of college are invited to try Army life with no obligation. They live in bachelor officers quarters, are subject to military inspections and regulations and attend classes of a military nature.

Upon completion of the course, women who wish to return may apply for the Student Officer Program. If accepted for the program, they are placed on inactive duty with the Army during their senior year of school and continue to receive corporal's pay and military benefits. Following graduation they are required to serve two years as an active duty officer in the Women's Army Corps.

Lauren McAlpin

Private First Class Lauren McAlpin, son of Mrs. Darlene McAlpin, of 1448 El Prado, Lemon Grove, is serving with the second battalion, twelfth infantry, United States Army.

Pfc McAlpin has just completed a tour of Germany, and his outfit is presently serving in Vietnam.

Pfc McAlpin is a 1968 graduate of Mount Miguel High School, and entered the service August 8, 1969.

Michael Duffy

Army Captain Michael F. Duffy, 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis P. Duffy, 760 Sonrisa dr., Del Mar, recently received the Air Medal at Camp Eagle, Vietnam.

Capt. Duffy earned the award for meritorious service while participating in aerial flight in support of ground operations in Vietnam.

During the same ceremony, he received the Army commendation Medal for meritorious service as a combat intelligence officer in the 4th Battalion, 77th Artillery, 101st Airborne Division (Airmobile).

The captain, whose wife, Linda, lives at 3201 Meadow lane, Lemon Grove, entered the Army in 1966 and was last stationed at Ft. Richardson, Alaska.

Gary Wigdahl

Captain Gary L. Wigdahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd G. Wigdahl of 1867 Skyline dr., Lemon Grove, is a member of a unit that has earned the U. S. Air Force Outstanding Unit Award.

Captain Wigdahl, a pilot in the 3575th Pilot Training Wing at Vance AFB, Okla., will wear a distinctive service ribbon to mark his affiliation with the unit.

The 3575th was cited for exceptionally meritorious service in support of the pilot training mission of the USAF from January 1968 to December 1969.

The citation accompanying the award commended the unit for consistently accomplishing its mission in an outstanding manner despite austere manning, greatly increased student loads, adverse flying weather and an exceptionally high rate of personnel turnover.

The 3575th is a part of the Air Training Command which provides flying, technical and basic military training for USAF personnel.

A 1961 graduate of Mount Miguel High School, Spring Valley, the captain received a B.A. degree from San Diego State College. He was commissioned upon completion of Officer Training School at Lackland AFB, Tex.

His wife, Anne, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Hopkins of 5485 Trojan ave., San Diego.

Delta Kappa Gamma Chapter Gets New Officers This Month

New officers for Gamma Chi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma for 1970-1971 will take over duties this month. New president of the society for women educators is Ona Elliott, teacher of history at Mt. Miguel High School.

She will be assisted by Dorothy Smith as first vice president, in charge of program, and Charlott Goggin as second vice president, in charge of membership. Mrs. Smith is a retired English teacher from Grossmont High School, and Mrs. Goggin teaches fifth grade at Grant School.

The new treasurer is Marcia Gookin, speech therapist for the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District, and the corresponding secretary is Dorothy Grinsell, reading specialist at Maryland Avenue School. Virginia Cornelius, retired art teacher from the Lemon Grove School District, is the new recording secretary.

The couple will honeymoon in Hawaii for two weeks before moving to their new home in La Jolla.

USIU HomeGames To Help With Camperships

United States International University and the Ninth District of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers have agreed to sponsor a program that it is hoped will produce enough funds to provide camperships for 1,000 children during the coming school year.

The City-County Camp Commission has been a pioneer nationally in its Sixth Grade School Camping Program, which provides for an appreciation of clean environment.

Last year 5,000 sixth graders attended sixth grade camp. Another 1,000, however, were unable to attend because of a lack of funds.

USIU and the PTA hope to raise $50,000 to cover the expenses of sending children from low-income families to camp.

The project, as outlined by USIU President William C. Rust and Jack Appenzeller, chairman of the PTA Camping Program, will involve 25 councils and 320 individual PTA units along with 25 parent clubs in San Diego City and County.

The PTA and parent groups will sell tickets for five USIU football games for $1.00 each that are good for any one of five USIU home football games scheduled in Balboa Stadium. USIU has provided seats for this purpose, with all funds raised to be used for the campership program.

Our Readers Write

WHAT TO DO?
By Randy Dibb

Just stop and think what this world is coming to. The high-jacking of planes to different countries and the pollution of our highways and streets AND the skies. Motorcycles and mini-bikes are destroying our backcountry. It is even getting bad to take a walk at night. What to do about all these things is a good question.

age 11, 1609 Fairfax Dr. Lemon Grove, Ca. 92045

Dear Editor: I wrote this all by myself and I would like you to publish it in your nice paper. Thanks, Randy Dibb

Dear Sir:

My name is Brian G. Tarpey, 2412 Edding dr., Lemon Grove.

I belong to Boy Scout troop 108. Last year my troop helped clean the center of town. As I deliver my newspapers I ride along the main streets and I think it looks very bad. Tumble weeds and junk are all along the railroad tracks. How can the town leaders let this go on? Please let your readers take notice of the overgrown weeds in our beautiful city.

I am going to ask our Scout leader Mr. Smitty to have our troop clean up the mess.

I am proud to live in Lemon Grove. Maybe readers will take a look at this disgrace and start a clean-up committee so we can have a pretty and beautiful city again.

COMBO Names Chairman For 1970 Auction Party

The "Sky's-the-limit" auction party which last was held in 1967, will show its new look for 1970 December 3 and December 5, offering super bargains and super dreams to bidders just three weeks before Christmas.

Mrs. Robert S. Faem, COMBO auction vice chairman, announced her team of women to organize the elaborate, two-night event which will begin in the Conference Building in Balboa Park.

Mrs. Robert N. Holmer of La Jolla will be chairman of the Saturday night auction with its black-tie dinner for 1,000 guests. Formal invitations will be mailed early in November.

The auction room will be arranged with tables for 16.

Spring Valley Chamber Plans Sunday Picnic

The Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce has set the first annual picnic, open to the public, for Sunday morning, at Eucalyptus Park, on Bancroft dr.

The picnic, which will begin at 10 a.m., will feature background music furnished by Bailey Electronics, free coffee, cookies, lemonade, punch, and other goodies, and speakers from the local area.

Families who plan to attend the picnic are asked to bring their own lunches.

Activities for the gala affair include live entertainment at 2 p.m. by Marie Hitchcock, known as "The Puppet Lady", Mount Miguel and Monte Vista High School bands, and a "real live clown", for the kiddies.

Games for the youngsters will include tug of war contests, volleyball, horseshoe pitching, relay races, balloon spearing, and "tap the bear".

The community get-together is planned to introduce members of the Spring Valley area to the Chamber of Commerce, and to improve community relations. For more information, contact Dave Bailey, 466-0775.

Heart Association Sets Open House October 4

An open house celebration at its Fifth avenue location will help the San Diego County Heart Association observe its 20th anniversary October 4, announced Frank A. Gibson, SDCHA president.

"Festivities will begin at 1 p.m. on the second floor at 3640 Fifth ave.," Gibson said, "and will feature displays, demonstrations, entertainment by a young group called Counterpoint, and refreshments. Highlight of the event will come when we honor past presidents of the Association and its charter members."

With San Diego now firmly established as a major Heart research center, nearly a quarter of a million Heart Fund dollars were allocated locally last year to help curb the nation's number-one killer-crippler.

According to the Association's annual report, its allocation for Heart Research was $75,000 in 1969-70, while $120,000 came in from the American Heart Association and $55,000 from other California Heart chapters.

Thirteen San Diego civic leaders have been named to a committee to study ways to increase the efficiency of the business operation of the cultural groups that will receive funds from COMBO in 1970.

The group had its first meeting Friday, September 11. Victor H. Krulak, COMBO president, said the purpose of the committee will be to unify administrative services and thus reduce overhead so that funds that come to COMBO's beneficiaries can actually be used for promotion of the arts.

Among the items to be considered by the committee are the possibilities of common mailing lists and common auditor services. Longer range objectives could extend to unified clerical support, common use of office and business machines and other steps which carry out simple business efficiency practices, Krulak said.

Nurses' Association Plans Institute For October 3 At SWC

The San Diego-Imperial Section of the School Nurses' Association will be holding an institute October 3 on the "Changing Role of the School Nurse in Health Education." All interested persons are invited to attend the institute which will be held at Southwestern College from 9:30 p.m. Luncheon will be held in the college cafeteria.

Keynote speaker will be Dr. Ted Dixon, County Superintendent of Schools. His topic will be "The Future Health of the School Child: Whose Responsibility." Mary Jane Quick will speak of the "Implementation of the New Health Education Guidelines." A panel composed of other members of the school team will discuss their views of the role of the school nurse in the afternoon session.

Bowlers Elect Cooper

"Doc" Cooper was elected to serve a second term as president of the Lemon Grove Business Women's League's bowling team, at a meeting last week.

Doris Murach was elected secretary and Eadie Wilkes, treasurer, for the 1970-71 winter league. The league meets on Tuesday nights, at 7 p.m. at Stroh's Lomita Bowl in Lomita Village.

Shettig, of 1795 Imperial ave., Lemon Grove, September 5 in a 2 p.m. ceremony, at St. John of the Cross Church in Lemon Grove. The bride is a 1968 graduate of Mount Miguel High School, as is the groom. The groom is a junior at San Diego State College where he is majoring in history. Following a honeymoon in Idyllwild, the couple plans to reside in the East San Diego area.

Boosters Set First Meeting

The Mt. Miguel Boosters Club started off the new school year with a potluck supper at the home of Van L. Ingraham, president, last Friday night. Ingraham introduced the new officers and called on Melvin Grant, principal at Mt. Miguel to introduce the new members of the administrative staff.

Grant also explained the new double session to the meeting. Several new teachers and coaches have been added to the athletic department and these were introduced by Ned Blass, department head.

Ingraham extended a special "thank you" to the many women who donated their time this summer at the refreshment stand during summer school. This is a main source of income for the Boosters Club.

The Boosters Club is a group of parents interested in helping the athletic department. New members are always welcome. The first meeting will be September 21, at the Ingraham residence, 8145 Palm, Lemon Grove, 7:30 p.m.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

Please demonstrate the use of "question" words in Spanish. Are there some specific interrogatives that can be used to start a question? If so, please give some examples.

There are many "question" words. They generally start a question. Sometimes they appear alone. The most common "question" words are "que, donde, cuando, como, quien, and cuanto" which mean respectively "what, where, when, how, who, and how much."

We may expand these "question" words by adding a verb to form a complete question. For example, we may say "Que es?" for "What is it?" and "Quien es?" for

"Who is it?" or we may say "Cuanto es?" for "How much is it?" and "Cuando es?" for "When is it?"

"If we wish to say 'Where is it?' we must use another verb, 'esta,' to mean 'is it.' Thus we may say 'Donde esta?' This same verb may be used with 'como' to ask the question 'Como esta?' which can mean 'How is it?' as well as 'How are you?'

"Que" can also mean "how" when used before and adjective. This may be seen in the expression "Que bonito!" for "How pretty!" and "Que magnifico!" for "How magnificent!" When used before a noun "que" means "what a." An example of this is seen in "Que hombre!" for "What a man!" Also "Que libro!" for "What a book!"

Enjoy learning to say the following practice phrases with the recorded voice that says them for you when you dial 276-2762.

IMPORTANT PHRASES:
Say "Que es?" (keh ehs) for "What is it?"
Say "Quien es?" (kee-EHN ehs) for "Who is it?"

First Film Of Year Set

Grossmont College will open its 1970-71 film series when "The Graduate" is screened at 7:30 p.m. tonight in the Fine Arts Lecture Hall.

One of the greatest box office successes in recent years, "The Graduate," produced by Mike Nichols stars Dustin Hoffman, Ann Bancroft and Katherine Ross.

Three Local Students Enrolled At University Of Redlands This Fall

The University of Redlands welcomed 682 new students, including three from this area, to its campus for the beginning of the fall semester, last week.

Melissa Ann Knight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Knight, of 1321 Braddock, of Lemon Grove, will join fellow Lemon Grove student Lynne Elaine Utterback, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Utterback, of 2222 Deboe dr., at the school. Both are Mount Miguel graduates.

Spring Valley's entry to the college will be Jayne Nadine Relaford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Relaford, of 10179 Madrid way. Jayne will be a psychology/sociology major, and will attend the Johnston College Campus. Jayne is a graduate of Monte Vista High.

Melissa Knight will also be a sociology/psychology major, and will also attend the Johnston College Campus. Lynne Utterback will be a history major and will attend the University College Campus.

PUPPIES — George Hart, Jr., of 8836 Kelbourne st., Spring Valley, keeps an eye on nine week-old Saint Bernard puppies, as they enjoy their lunch. Their mother, Rica, weighs in at over 240 pounds, and was expected to give birth to only five pups, but surprised everyone with 12 little ones. Three of the young dogs died shortly after birth, however.

Stolen Auto Slams Into Local House

A house at 604 Galapago st., in the La Presa area, was damaged extensively September 11, when a stolen car carrying two Spring Valley youths crashed into it at 6:55 a.m.

The boys were placed in juvenile hall for referral to the county probation office for automobile theft, according to the California Highway Patrol.

The house, owned by Kenneth Stagle, was damaged severely, but no one was injured in the mishap.

Grossmont College Sets Revised Bus Schedules

Overwhelmingly favorable response to an announcement that Grossmont College would provide limited bus service from the urban areas surrounding the college, Grossmont College has extended the area of coverage and the number of stops.

Bus service will be provided on four routes commencing at 7:15 a.m.

Route 1 will service the South Valley Spring Valley-La

Mesa area; Route 2 will serve the North Spring Valley-Mt. Helix area.

Buses will leave Grossmont College for return trips on the four routes at 1:15 and 4:15 p.m. The service will extend Monday through Friday. The new service, operating on a trial basis, is a joint project of the Associated Students of Grossmont College and the Goodall Charter Bus Service.

No public tax money will be involved in the trial service according to John A. Burdick, dean of student activities at Grossmont College. A one-way fare of 25 cents has been set for each trip which will take from 30 to 45 minutes.

Netzley Warns Parents About Bicycle Safety

"A very big percentage of the 45 million American youngsters and teachers heading back to school this week are using bicycles for convenient transportation, and it is our obligation as adults, parents, educators, or interested citizens to see to it that they are advised about good bike safety," Superintendent Byron L. Netzley of the Lemon

Grove School District said this week.

"We warn kids about accepting candy from strangers and the perils of drug abuse, and yet we neglect to tell them about something as elementary as traffic awareness and the bicycle rules of the road, which are probably as life-saving as other warnings," Superintendent Netzley added that most bicycle accidents are caused by youngsters and not by faculty bicycles.

"More and more educators realize we are not interested in education for its own sake, but we're trying to give youngsters the kind of background that will prepare them for a role in a changing society. Certainly the application of safety rules is as much a part of the educational process as the declension of verbs," Netzley said.

Superintendent Netzley listed these bike safety rules as outlined by the Bicycle Institute of America. "Every concerned parent should know these rules, and then be sure the kids know them, too," Netzley affirmed.

1. Obey all traffic regulations, lights, stop signs, one-way streets.
2. Keep right. Ride single file. Don't weave in and out, swerve, race or stunt in traffic. Never hitch a ride on a truck or other vehicle.
3. For night riding, be sure to have a white light in front and a red light or state-approved reflector in the rear. Have a clear-sounding horn or bell.
4. Slow down at all intersections, look both ways, then proceed with caution.
5. Always give pedestrians the right-of-way.
6. Watch out for cars pulling into traffic or for doors opening.
7. Don't carry passengers or packages that interfere with your vision or control.
8. Always use proper hand signals for stopping and turning.

Part-time Work For Students At Southwestern Is Tough To Get

Obtaining part-time employment for Southwestern College students continues to plague the staff in the placement office at the college.

"We have an excellent pool of qualified people who have a real need for part-time jobs," explained Mrs. Reta Benhardt, coordinator of placement. "Many students are self-supporting, and must work in order to attend school. Some 20% are married, and they must work too. So, the problem is a considerable one."

She said the placement service performs a dual function for any prospective employer. They not only conduct screening interviews with job candidates, but make a practice of sending several qualified applicants to prospective employers, thus allowing them to select the most qualified job seeker.

Many students are well trained in technical areas such as Data Processing, electronics technicians, draftsmen, photo lab technicians, auto mechanics, aircraft mechanics, labs assistants, secretarial skills, radio and TV repair and office machine operators.

'The Pill' To Be Discussed On TV Tonight

Three California physicians defend use of "The Pill," under a physician's supervision, on "Doctor's News Conference," a television program to be shown tonight at 7 p.m. by television station KCST, channel 39.

"What disturbs me is that we have to spend so much time counteracting inflammatory and often irresponsible statements having to do with 'The Pill,' in answering the question, 'How many people does the pill kill?' We should be explaining how many lives it is saving," declares Dr. Keith P. Russell, consultant to California Medical Association's Committee on Maternal and Child Care and clinical professor of obstetrics and gynecology at the USC School of Medicine.

A statistical breakdown of the risk of the pill is given by Dr. Walker M. Ballard, chief of family health and population in the California Department of Public Health's Bureau of Maternal and Child Health. The figures show that in the entire population the risk of death from childbearing is 10 times greater than the risk of death from taking the pill — 20 times greater in deprived areas.

"If by use of the pill we can buy time for a woman in a deprived area to get in better health, then she, too, will enjoy the lower rate of risk of her more affluent sister. The pill is saving lives," Doctor Ballard adds.

Dr. Minnie B. Goldberg, clinical professor of medicine emeritus at the University of California, San Francisco, and a pioneer in the use of estrogens, dispels the notion that estrogens are causing cancer.

Probation Given To Grove Pair For Marijuana Use

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — Two Lemon Grove young men were put on probation in Superior Court Friday, after pleading guilty to being at a place where narcotics were being used.

Frank M. Scarelli, 22, and Clifford Imada, 23, both of 3178 Florine dr., Lemon Grove, were arrested just after midnight on April 7, when sheriff's deputies noticed them in an open field near the south end of College ave.

The records show the deputies approached the two asked for identification. It is stated that plastic bag of marijuana fell from Scarelli's lap. It was also stated some wine bottles were by the side of the two. They pleaded guilty to marijuana use.

The young men appeared in Municipal Court in El Cajon on July 2 and were let out on bail, for sentencing Friday by Superior Court Judge Leland C. Nielsen. In suspending sentence, the judge put Imada on probation for three years, with payment of a fine of $100 and the usual provisions about tests for narcotics use and keeping out of Mexico.

Scarelli, already on five years' probation for smuggling marijuana into jail, was fined $150, with his previous probation continued. Both men had their crimes adjusted to make them misdemeanors, instead of felonies.

Aztecs To Test String Over Texas Opponents

There will be more than just one winning streak on the line Saturday, when San Diego State takes on North Texas State in Denton, Texas.

The Aztecs upped their unbeaten string to 23 straight last weekend by ripping Northern Illinois University, 35-3, in DeKalb, Illinois, and will be shooting for number 24.

But, the Montezumans will also be out to maintain their mastery over Texas-based schools. State owns a perfect 5-0 record versus teams from the Lone Star State including a 1-0 edge over the NTC Eagles. The Aztecs have also beaten UT Arlington twice and West Texas State and Texas Southern once each.

"They look like real heels," comments Coryell. "They look strong at just about every position and could very well be the toughest defensive team we'll face all season."

While State was dumping Northern Illinois, the Eagles were dropping a 10-7 decision to BYU (future SDS foe) in Provo, Utah.

Coryell hit the nail right on the head about the prowess of the NTS defense. The Eagles have seven starters back from 1969 along with four backup men.

Included in the Mean Green, as they've been tagged, secondary is a pair of fine defensive backs. Leonard Dunlap is one of the real keys. He tied an NCAA record last year by returning three interceptions for touchdowns. His running mate is Lyndon Fox who paced NTS in 1969 with eight pass thefts.

Despite losing their opener to BYU, North Texas looked quite impressive on defense. The Eagles grabbed off five BYU aerials and limited the Cougars to just four first downs in the second half.

Assistant coach Rod Dowhower probably summed up the Eagle defense best by remarking, "They're solid, that's the word, no doubt about it — they're solid."

The Aztecs picked up 505 yards total offense in the victory over NIU, but pleased as Coryell was with the triumph, he still had some reservations.

"We're very pleased with our overall performance," he states, "but we have some rough spots that need correcting. We'll have to improve over last week to keep up with North Texas."

Hale Wins Two Mains In Speedway Racing Action

Smilin' Ed Hale, of Lemon Grove, closed out the modified season Friday night at Cajon Speedway by putting away his second main event of the year, and finishing third in the point standings.

Hale, who didn't have too much luck in qualifying runs, moved well in his heat race, and came up with a fine starting position for the main event. He won the thirty-lap affair in 8:57.32.

On Saturday night, the Lemon Grove leadfoot stole the show again, as he turned in the fastest qualifying time, took second in the trophy dash, and came from thirteenth starting position to win the main event for super stockers.

In the main event Saturday night, Hale got a break on the first lap when Russ Bullen got a little too anxious, and lost control of the Engine Eddy Special, careening into the crash wall, and sending pieces of it flying onto the track.

Local Teams To Square Off For Tomorrow Night's Carnival

"A Decade of Change" will be the theme for the 10th Annual Grossmont League Football Carnival to be held tomorrow night at Aztec Bowl.

According to Robert Divine,

Chargers Duel Colts, Unitas In Sunday's Game

The San Diego Chargers tackle Johnny Unitas and the Baltimore Colts in a National Football League opener at San Diego Stadium Sunday. Kickoff is 1 p.m.

There is a strange twist to the big game. It will mark the debut of San Diego in the NFL (American Conference) and the debut of Baltimore in the American Conference (NFL).

But the Colts have one constant factor in their favor. Unitas was winning championships for them when the Chargers were but a gleam in the eye of Barron Hilton. Pro Football's greatest quarterback needs 298 more passing yards to reach the 20-mile mark as he embarks on his 15th season Sunday.

One member of the Unitas Fan Club is Charger Coach Charlie Waller. "He has the best combination of brain and arm of any quarterback. He thinks quickly and strikes quickly."

San Diego, itself a team with a potential to strike quickly, may have to face Baltimore without some of its most potent weapons. Numbered on the Charger injury list are all-pro receiver Lance Alworth, league-leading rusher Dickie Post and impressive sophomore quarterback Marty Domres. Expected to return to action against the Colts are ace receiver Gary Garrison, tackle Russ Washington and cornerbacks Bobby Howard and Joe Beauchamp.

San Diego concluded its pre-season activity with a record of 3-3 by losing to the New Orleans Saints, 20-14, before 63,904 at steamy Tulane Stadium last Saturday night. Baltimore, under new coach Don McCafferty, had a record of 4-2 which included victories over San Diego's three rivals in the AFC West. The Colts beat Oakland, 32-21; Kansas City, 17-3, and Denver, 24-7.

Tourney Planned

One of the most important table tennis events in the Western sector of the U. S., the Pacific Southwest Championships will be held in San Diego's Balboa Park Sept. 19, 20 under sponsorship of the San Diego Table Tennis Association and the San Diego Recreation Department.

The U. S. Table Tennis Association-sanctioned event will be conducted in the Conference Building of the Park starting each day at 10 a.m. and concluding around 8 p.m. Saturday and 9 p.m. Sunday. Finals will be Sunday, at 7 p.m.

carnival coordinator, the pageantry will begin at 7:30 p.m. as some 1,200 musicians and specialty corps members salute the achievements of the past decade and provide a look forward into the seventies.

At 8 p.m. 350 students from the eight high schools in the Grossmont District will compete in four quarters of football.

"The Lewis F. Smith trophy will be presented to the team who is judged to have been outstanding in sportsmanship, desire to play, and displayed the greatest overall effectiveness as a football team," said Grossmont League President Norm Robbins.

Tickets are available at local high schools. Adults are $1.50, high school students $1.00, and children under 12 are 50c. "No high school student tickets will be sold at the gate. Only adult and children's tickets will be available at the gate on the night of the carnival," said Divine.

An overflow crowd of more than 10,000 spectators is expected. Those attending the carnival are urged to follow the recommended routes in order to avoid traffic congestion.

Ronson Signs With Gulls

Len Ronson, the San Diego Gulls' All-Star left winger and Western Hockey League leading goal scorer, has signed a contract for the 1970-71 season.

Ronson scored 51 goals last season to lead the WHL and established a new San Diego team record. He had 37 assists to finish with a total of 88 points, good for seventh in the WHL point standings.

The hard-shooting winger finished fourth in the WHL Most Valuable Player voting. Ronson, 34, leads the Gulls with 152 goals in the team's four seasons in the WHL.

Ronson won the team's Most Valuable Player award last season, as well as the Union-Tribune Gulls' Player of the Year award.

take Interstate 8 to Fairmont, left on Montezuma road to 55th st., and left on 55th st. to the parking areas.

Those attending from the Monte Vista and Helix areas are advised to take Highway 94 to College avenue, right on College, to Montezuma road, and right on Montezuma to the parking areas.

Supporters for El Capitan, Santana, Granite Hills, and Grossmont High Schools will be seated on the east side of Aztec Bowl. El Cajon, Helix, Monte Vista, and Mt. Miguel rooters will be seated on the west side.

The first quarter of the action will pit a rugged, ground-minded Monte Vista against favored Grossmont in what could be one of the best competitive demonstrations of the evening. Monte Vista has some big people on offense, and a quick defensive unit.

Grossmont, also a muscle team, has big and fast personnel on both offense and defense, and boasts a pretty fair passing game.

In the second quarter, Granite Hills takes on El Cajon in what should be a relatively easy one for Granite Hills.

In the third quarter, Helix High School's Green Machine will take on Santana. Helix, rated as one of the favorites in the league, has the people, and if execution goes well, will have no trouble with Santana.

In the fourth quarter, a lot of scoring should take place, as Mount Miguel takes on El Capitan. The Matadors, fielding one of the smallest teams in the loop this year, have a ready offense, but have had their problems on defense.

El Cap, with the return of Bill Fudge, will have an offensive threat throughout the game, but the defense is also a question mark.

The Carnival, which is a tune-up session for most of the teams, could show which teams will be strong in the upcoming league season.

Early choices for top teams made Helix and Grossmont co-favorites, with El Capitan a close third. Fourth place should see Monte Vista, with Granite Hills fifth, and Mount Miguel, El Cajon and Santana battling it for the remainder of the positions.

THROUGH THE CAGE — Mount Miguel griders worked on precision and timing this week as the team prepared for tomorrow night's encounter with El Capitan in the fourth quarter of the football carnival.

Celebrities Named For Carlton Oaks Golf Classic

Complete celebrity list for the Ninth Annual Comedians Golf Classic Friday and Saturday at Carlton Oaks CC in Santee has been announced by tournament director Dick Martin.

Jack Carter, this year's Mulligan Awards Winner, and Jack Lemmon, who captured the dubious honor last year, head a star-studded list including Don Adams, Phil Harris, Monty Hall, Lawrence Welk, Chuck Connors, Dennis James, Jackie Coogan, Jan Murray, Richard Arlen, Gary Morton and Mickey Manners.

Gene Littler will tee off with the celebs as Pro Golfer of the Year.

Also forming a fifth partner to prominent Pro-Am teams from all over the nation will be Harvey Korman, Larry Wilde, John Conte, Bob Steele, Jack Ging, Buddy Lester, Fred Finn, Pat McCormick, Ray Coniff, Forest Tucker, and Bob Morgan from the realms of movies and TV.

The event is being held as a fund raiser for the Friends of Handicapped Children with proceeds to go toward construction of a swimming pool and playground in San Diego.

Aztec Harriers Ready To Run

With the annual All-Comers mile campus course, the Aztecs are rated one of four pre-meet favorites along with host Cal State Long Beach, defending champion USC and Cal State Fullerton.

"I think we have a real chance," comments Sucec. "We've been runner-up to USC for the last three seasons and last season SDS placed second in the meet. Contested on Cal State Long Beach's five-category."

Organ Firm Expands; 'Open House' Saturday

by Max Goodwin

Success has come to a couple of Lemon Grove young men.

Jim Hansen and Tommy Stark, 25 and 24 years of age, have become the organ and piano tycoons of east San Diego — and perhaps of a much wider area.

The twosome, both professional organists, have just acquired the franchise for San Diego and Imperial Counties for Rodgers organs. They are already successful franchise holders for Gulbrandsen organs and pianos for their Southland Music Center in Lemon Grove.

It was just a little more than four months ago when the pair purchased the former theatre building at 3459 Imperial ave. The building was remodeled and a front section was made into a plush showroom. This week they are opening the second showroom on the other side of the building. This one will house Rodgers instruments.

At an Open House Saturday, starting at 8 p.m. the Rodgers line will be on display and West Coast professional organists will provide a continuous concert until all who are interested have had enough.

Rolls Royce

The Rodgers line is called "the Rolls Royce of organs," Hansen said. They sell for $5,000 to $20,000. Above that price they are custom-made. Gene Zarnes, of Portland, Rodgers executive vice president and Jim Walls, district representative, will be here for the preview.

Also at the Saturday opening will be Bob Russell, president of the L. G. Chamber of Commerce and other local notables.

That the young firm has been successful leaves no doubt. Hansen said that "we can't keep a piano in the house."

"As fast as they come in they are sold," Stark said.

The rest of the theatre is being remodeled, too; it was learned. A huge Wurlitzer organ that was designed by Jesse Crawford for the Capitol Theatre in Detroit will eventually be housed there. When remodeling is complete, regular organ concerts will be held. Also in the plans are live stage musicals done in the decor and fashion of the 1900 era and old fashioned silent films.

The two young men are enthusiastic and friendly. Anyone who likes music will enjoy visiting them.

For the record, Stark was with Xavier Cugat's band in Las Vegas, and Hansen was on a world concert tour before they formed Southland Music.

Bancroft Baptist Church Opens Nursery School

Bancroft Baptist Church this week announced that the church's nursery school-education center is open Monday through Friday from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m. for children ages two through ten.

The nursery school offers a balanced lunch for children, a large fenced recreation area, stories, music, and spiritual awareness, according to Pastor Lewis Ginn.

For more information, call 463-9933.

TRAVELERS — It took a trip to Ireland for two Lemon Grove families to get acquainted. While sharing a car enroute to the famed River Shannon, two families learned they had a lot more in common than just touring the Emerald Isle. From the left, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Ames, and their daughter Vivian became acquainted with Dr. and Mrs. Harry Sorteberg, a local dentist. The Sortebergs celebrated their 44th wedding anniversary that day. The Ames recently moved from their residence on Golden lane to Upas st. in San Diego.

Sporting Goods Store Victim Of Burglary

Detectives from the San Diego County Sheriff's Department were investigating a burglary and theft of 68 firearms from Stanley Andrews Sporting Goods, 6941 Federal Blvd., Lemon Grove, last week.

The burglary, which occurred sometime between 6 p.m. September 9 and 6 a.m. September 10, is believed to have involved at least two suspects.

Material evidence at the scene consisted of pry marks on the rear door of the building as well as evidence of illegal entry to a second door in the building.

The burglars made off with between $5,000 and $6,000 worth of firearms and ammunition, including 30 handguns and 38 rifles.

PTA HILITES

Santa Sophia

The Parent-Teachers Group of Santa Sophia Academy, Spring Valley, will hold its first meeting of the new term at 8 p.m. tonight in the parish hall.

Mrs. John O'Hea, president, will introduce the officers and board members, outline plans for the coming year, and discuss the purpose and activities of the organization.

Officers for the 1970-71 year are Marie O'Hea, president; Robert Dial, vice-president; Agnes Smith, secretary; Francis X. Kern III, treasurer, and Jerry Smith, auditor.

Sister Claire Lebreux, principal, will speak to the parents on the organization and policies of the school, outlining the activities for the new year, and will introduce the members of the faculty.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Macy will greet the parents and welcome newcomers.

Hunters Set For Opening Of Seasons

It isn't too early for San Diego County duck hunters to start passing the word along to their spouses that, come Oct. 10, they may not be around for long.

That's the magic date when a split 88-day waterfowl season opens to Southern California scattergunners.

The warning was issued by Lewis H. Dowdy of La Jolla, chairman of the local Ducks Unlimited steering committee, who heads the 60-man chapter planning the 27th annual San Diego DU fund-raising dinner party at the Town and Country Convention Center in Mission Valley on Oct. 1.

The first half of the duck shoot ends Nov. 15, resuming from Nov. 28 through Jan. 17, 1971. In this area the daily bag and possession limit is seven ducks and six geese, only two of which may be Canada honkers. Goose season here will close Jan. 10.

Black sea brant, popular target for many San Diegans, can be taken Nov. 21 through Feb. 21, 1971. Daily limit is four, eight in possession.

Dowdy invited all area hunters and non-hunters, their spouses and families, to attend the Oct. 1 DU party, featuring a gourmet dinner of boneless squab and wild rice, preceded by a complimentary cocktail hour.

A new color-sound movie on the life of the pintail duck will be shown and 50 donated prizes, valued at over $10,000, will be given away. Tickets may be purchased for a tax-deductible $25 from any DU committeeman. Last year's DU party netted a record $23,700 for the ducks.

Rockets Sign Larry Siegfried

Larry Siegfried, called by Bill Russell as one of the best basketball minds playing the game, has agreed to contract terms with the San Diego Rockets for the 1970-71 National Basketball Association season.

Rocket general manager Pete Sewell said the acquisition of Larry stabilizes the backcourt position.

Siegfried joined the rest of the San Diego squad when Coach Alex Hannum sent his Rockets through opening day drills at the University of San Diego gym Tuesday.

Siegfried begins his eighth year in professional basketball, having played seven seasons with the Boston Celtics. The 6-3, 192-pound backcourt star was obtained by San Diego in March from the Portland Trail Blazers after they had selected him in the expansion draft. Jim Barnett was sent to the Portland club in the trade.

In seven seasons with the Celtics, Siegfried averaged 24 minutes playing time over 466 games and scored at an 11.6 point per game clip.

AREA OBITUARIES

Steven Gress

Funeral services were held last week at St. Martin's Catholic Church, La Mesa, for Steven Gress, 15, of 6947 San Miguel, Lemon Grove, who died September 6.

Burial was in Holy Cross Cemetery. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cleatus Gress, two brothers, two sisters, maternal grandparents, and paternal grandparents.

Thurlof Doyle

Captain Thurlof G. Doyle, 54, of 10063 Sierra Bonita, Spring Valley, died September 6 at Naval Hospital. Funeral services were held Thursday at Goodbody Mortuary's Boulevard Chapel.

Doyle, a Crow Indian, served with the United States Navy as an aviator in World War II and Korea, and retired as a captain in 1965 after 26 years.

Survivors include his widow, Frances, two sons, two daughters, a sister, five brothers, and five grandchildren. Cremation followed the services.

Lee Michaels On Tap At S.D. Sports Arena

By Lynn Jones

Lee Michaels will be coming to the San Diego Sports Arena Saturday, at 7 p.m. Michaels will be playing "his" music on an organ, while "Frosty" will be accompanying him on a set of drums.

At the age of 21, Lee signed as an individual artist with A & M Records and after writing enough tunes for an album, put together a group and cut his first album, "Carnival of Life." Lee said, "That first album was not me," and decided to get rid of that group and cut his second album, "Recital," which was all "his."

Later on, Lee and Frosty put together another album called "Lee Michaels" and both these performers were able to record it in less than 7 hours. His latest release, "Barrel," uses not only the talents of Lee and Frosty, but guitarist Drake Levin, a former member of Paul Revere & The Raiders.

Tickets are available at the Sports Arena Box office only. They will cost $4.25 in advance and $4.75 at the door. A military discount can be obtained through all Special Services. For additional information, call the Box Office.

The Unicorn Cinema, 7475 La Jolla Blvd., La Jolla, will be showing two movies tonight and tomorrow. They are The Collector (1965), with Terence Stamp and Samantha Eggar. The show will start at 8:50 p.m. and on Friday at 12:45 p.m. The other show will be Hot Millions (1968) with Maggie Smith and Peter Ustinov. It will start at 7 p.m. and at 10:50 p.m.

Opening September 19 to the 21 will be two more shows. They will be Freaks (1932), starting at 8:55 p.m. and on Saturday at 11:55 p.m., and Psycho (1960). Psycho is an Alfred Hitchcock story starring Anthony Perkins, Janet Leigh and Martin Balsam. It will start at 7 p.m. and at 10 p.m.

Two more shows will be coming to the Unicorn Cinema on September 22 for a one day showing only. The first one will be The Man Who Laughs (1928) with Conrad Veidt. The show will start at 7 p.m. and at 9:15 p.m. The second show will be The Tell-Tale Heart. The times given above will be the times the show will start. They are two complete showings.

Starting September 23, there will be two more shows. The Gospel According To St. Matthew (1964), will start at 7:20 p.m. and at 9:50 p.m. Anticipation (1969) will be the second show. It will start at 7 p.m. and at 9:30 p.m.

For more information call 454-7373.

Donovan will be appearing at the International Sports Arena on September 20 at 8 p.m. For more information call 224-4176.

"1776", the musical comedy about the early days of the republic, will be presented in the Civic Theatre on September 23 through the 29. The show will start at 8:30 p.m.

Tickets can be obtained at the Civic Theatre Box Office, all Highlander Men's Stores, and Metro Ticket Agencies. For more information call 2366510.

Heartland Y Sets District Attorneys Jogging Class Support E. J. Younger

Sacramento County's District Attorney John M. Price, immediate Past President of the National District Attorneys' Association told a Los Angeles press gathering this week that "District Attorneys throughout California are overwhelmingly in favor of Evelle Younger for Attorney General."

In announcing Younger's endorsement by 36 of the state's 58 District Attorneys, Price declared that the unusually strong support was particularly significant because "all of the county prosecutors are familiar with District Attorney Younger's outstanding contributions to law enforcement and his unique qualifications to head the state's highest law office."

Beginning Monday, the Heartland YMCA will offer two classes of "Run For Your Life", a program designed to stimulate interest in personal physical fitness through the improvement in vigor and stamina of adult men.

By the nature of present modes of living, many men are often predisposed to heart disease, obesity, diabetes, hardening of the arteries and general unfitness.

Participants begin by enrolling in a 12 week walking-jogging program under the supervision of a trained YMCA exercise instructor. Members will be taught how to exercise and run with safe and sane training principles, counseled on personal fitness problems, and checked periodically as to their progress.

Upon completion of the 12 week session, members will be admitted to the annual Run For Your Life Club of the Heartland YMCA.

The program meets three times a week, Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at 6:30 a.m. or 5:30 p.m. Each class period lasts 45 minutes. Members are expected to attend all sessions.

PORAC OKs Deddeh

Assemblyman Wadie Deddeh (D-77th) said the Peace Officers Research Association of California have voted unanimously to endorse his candidacy for re-election.

PORAC also noted Deddeh's support of police officers. The Peace Officers Research Association is an organization representing all of the peace officers of the State of California.

Deddeh is completing his second term in the Legislature and running for re-election.

Deddeh is the chairman of the Committee on Public Employment and Retirement, member of the Committees on Government Administration and Transportation.

Beef Appetizers

For a beefed up appetizer cut boneless California chuck into mini cubes and marinate overnight in 1/2 cup salad oil, 1/4 cup wine vinegar, 1 teaspoon salt and 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce. Party guests spear their own California beef for grilling over a table hibachi.

Most People Have Lung Damage, Physician Says

Most people have some lung damage before they reach their teens, according to a physician at the University of Southern California School of Medicine.

Dr. Russell P. Sherwin, Hastings professor of pathology, says he has examined thousands of lungs and has yet to find a person over the age of 12 years whose lungs don't show some damage.

"A disease may not manifest itself until the individual is 40 or 50 years old, but it often begins in the early years," he claims.

"The problem the public must start thinking about is not only how to prevent lung disease but how much lung reserve one can afford to lose," the USC pathologist noted.

"People are being depleted of reserve lung tissue every day and don't realize it," he said. "Maybe they're a little shorter of breath after they climb a flight of stairs or play a round of golf, but they put it down to being out of shape."

While the public may not be aware of it, lungs are developing scars and many other abnormalities as the cells of the lung are damaged and die. Even with present-day tests, lung damage and the loss of cells may not become evident until more than half of the organ is destroyed.

Dr. Sherwin has coined two new words for his concepts: "morbidity," to mean unrecognized debilitation, i.e., functioning below par but not realizing it; and "hypopenia," meaning loss of reserve power.

How serious is it to lose reserve lung power? It's possible to live a normal lifetime and never miss it.

"If you lose all but a small fraction of your reserve, you can still breathe," Dr. Sherwin said. "But if you need reserve and very little is left, you're in very serious trouble. If you should get pneumonia, for instance, which doctors can generally cure with antibiotics, or a lung cancer that could be successfully removed, you may not make it without that extra lung power that comes from the reserve."

The USC pathologist said it is entirely plausible that as many as 10 percent of the deaths attributed to heart disease are actually due primarily to some form of lung disease.

"The heart fails and the individual dies, but the heart may not have been getting enough oxygen because there was lung damage. The lung also performs many more functions for us besides 'breathing' and we know very little about them," he said.

According to Dr. Sherwin, pathologist today are not routinely conducting the tests necessary to identify lung disease. "Emphysema, for example, is a disease that produces holes in the lung. A hole one millimeter in diameter may represent an air sac more than 500 times its normal volume, but our present routine laboratory examinations are not geared to pick up lesions less than two or three millimeters."

Troop 376 on Trek To Imperial Valley

A weekend campout to Seeley in the Imperial Valley will begin Friday evening for members of Lemon Grove Boy Scout Troop 376.

Sponsored by St. Philip's Episcopal Church, 2660 Hardy dr., the Scouts are to leave by automobiles Friday and return Sunday afternoon.

Recognized as one of the most active units in San Diego County, Troop 376 recently returned from an eight-day trip down the Colorado River. Other campouts this year have been to Seeley, Palomar, Santee, Vacation Island and Silver Strand.

In addition, members took part in a work party at St. Philip's Church last week to help their sponsoring institution prepare for dedication of its new building.
